

Chanukah!

Historical Considerations of a Holiday
Widely Celebrated—Surprisingly Misunderstood
Rabbi Dr. Dovid Katz

Rabbi Dr. Dovid Katz is the rabbi of Congregation Beth Abraham of Baltimore, MD., a history professor at Johns Hopkins University (Dept. of Near-Eastern Studies), and a former Contributing Editor to the ArtScroll Schottenstein edition of the Babylonian Talmud.

Rabbi Katz lectures widely on Jewish History as well as on Rabbinic Literature. His translation of the Aramaic Iggeres Rav Sherira Gaon of 987 CE is featured in the newly published introductory volume to the ArtScroll edition of the Babylonian Talmud.

Hosted by Yoshiyahu & Rachel Levinger

מוצאי שבת December 21st / 8:00pm
25 Barrie Drive / RSVP rabbidkatz.monsey@gmail.com

Lecture followed by Q&A / Light Refreshments
$20/person $35/couple / Zelle (917) 687-2363