

This series has been extended by one week –
this week's lecture covers an additional topic not listed in the original publicity.
Remaining lectures are Feb. 13 and 20.

Thirteen Lectures in Modern Jewish History
Offered by Congregation Beth Abraham ("Hertzberg's")

Stormy Years of the Twentieth Century:
1914-1934
By Rabbi Dovid Katz

Eleventh lecture

Living under the Inquisition:
Soviet Jewry under Lenin and Stalin 1920-1934

Saturday evening, February 6, 2009

8:00 – 9:00 pm

at Yeshivat Rambam, 6300 Park Heights Avenue

Dedicated in memory of Nathan Birman a"h by friends of Alex Birman

Remaining Lectures

Feb. 13: The Great Depression and the Rise of Hitler: Its Effect on the Jews of Europe

Feb. 20: The Great Depression and the Rise of Hitler: Its Unexpected Effect on the Jews of Eretz Yisrael

This lecture is also made possible through a generous grant from the Jewish Education Enrichment Project (JEEP) of the ASSOCIATED, and by donations from the following corporate sponsors:

Brody Brothers Pest Control

"By a Better House" Replacement Windows

Hoffman Caterers

HRS Flooring Company

Steve Kaplon

Sinai Marble and Granite Company

This lecture is free of charge.

www.hertzbergs.org

www.rabbikatz.com