

Ezra Bessaroth—Sephardic Bikur Holim—Bikur Cholim Machzikay Hadath

JUNE 19, 2010

Join Rabbi Dovid Katz, noted lecturer and historian, for a Shabbat to remember.

Take advantage of this unique opportunity to hear a noted Jewish historian who regularly draws hundreds to his history lectures in Baltimore, week after week.

Sign up for lunch by calling Susan at the EB office, 722-5500. Checks payable to: Congregation Ezra Bessaroth. Deadline: June 16.

Shabbat Morning Sermon at Ezra Bessaroth:

“Machaneh Yisrael: Camp and School in Modern Jewish History”

Deluxe Sephardic Dairy Lunch at Ezra Bessaroth:

Adult: $25.00 Child: (4-12) $18.00 Three and under: Free

Lecture Following Lunch: (all lectures open to public—no charge)

“What is a Rav? Choosing a Rabbi: Then and Now”

6:00—7:30 p.m. Seudah Shelishit at Bikur Cholim Machzikay Hadath:

“Can the Ashkenazim Trust the Sepharadim with their Money? The Noda BiYhudah and the Hurva of R. Yehudah Chasid in Jerusalem in the 18th Century”

7:30—8:30 p.m. Shabbat Evening Class, Sephardic Bikur Holim Congregation:

“My Monides, Your Monides, His Monides: The Image of the Rambam in the 19th Century: Mitnaged, Chassid, Maskil?”

9:00—9:45 p.m. at Bikur Cholim Machzikay Hadath:

“Reading the Bible Between the Lines: The Book of Esther vs. the Book of Ezra”

Rabbi Dovid Katz